

OHIO FATHERHOOD COMMISSION MISSION

- Ohio Commission on Fatherhood is a state-wide commission that seeks to help fathers become better parents, partners and providers.

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY EXTENSION

- OSU Extension strives to improve the quality of life for all Ohioans residents through research, service and training.
- Ohio State University Extension brings the knowledge of the university directly to you. We fulfill the land-grant mission of The Ohio State University by interpreting knowledge and research developed by Extension and other faculty and staff at the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center, Ohio State main campus, and other land-grant universities – so Ohioans can use the scientifically based information to better their lives, businesses, and communities.
- OSU Extension has offices in all 88 counties in the state of Ohio.

OSU EXTENSION CAN HELP THE OHIO FATHERHOOD COMMISSION ACHIEVE ITS MISSION BY:

- Offering trainings for practitioners in the state of Ohio.
- Assisting with the development of websites and evaluations.
- Willing to co-sponsor workshops and meetings.
- Willing to pilot innovative programs and services, which can benefit non-custodial and custodial parents such as B.A.F.F.
- Willing to accept referrals from the Courts as an alternative to incarceration or a condition of Waiver and Compromise approval. Courts might consider referring non-custodial and/or custodial parents to life skills training (parenting, financial literacy, food & nutrition, workforce development, etc.).
- Willing to deliver OSU Extension signature programs, including but not limited to Serv Safe, Dining with Diabetes, Successful Co-Parenting, 4-H Youth Development; SNAP Education; Expanded Food & Nutrition Education Program (EFNEP), Meal Preparation (MP3), etc.
- Willing to serve on the Ohio Fatherhood Commission Advisory Board.
- Willing to apply for local, county or state grants and/or accept contracts to offer the above mentioned programs and services.
